

OJP Conference on Crime and Victimization

MAY 25 – 27, 2011

CRAGUN'S CONFERENCE CENTER
BRainerd, MINNESOTA

MINNESOTA DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY
OFFICE OF JUSTICE PROGRAMS

"If we are together nothing is impossible. If we are divided all will fail."

— Winston Churchill —

The Minnesota Department of Public Safety Office of Justice Programs (OJP) is pleased to present the OJP Conference on Crime and Victimization. OJP provides leadership and resources to reduce crime in Minnesota, improve the functioning of the criminal justice system, and assist crime victims. This event brings professionals together to review current research, improve skills, share information, and network with peers. The conference allows participants the opportunity to discuss and strategize ways to address barriers to providing high-quality services. Through efforts to form multi-disciplinary approaches and explore the root causes of these issues, we can work together to combat the cycle of violence, crime and victimization.

Encouraged Participants

An invitation to attend is extended to: victims/survivors of crime, victim service providers, victim advocates, law enforcement personnel, prosecutors, judges, court personnel, probation/corrections personnel, medical/health care practitioners, social service professionals, educators, community leaders and others interested in crime and victimization.

Location

The event location is Cragun's Conference Center in Brainerd. Registration and all plenary sessions will be held in Cragun's conference facilities. Unless otherwise noted, meals are served in the dining room. All conference facilities are wheelchair accessible. Transportation will be available to participants requiring assistance to/from the Sports Centre and the main lobby for meals, workshops and general sessions.

Professional Credits (Continuing Education Units)

Continuing education credits for the conference have been applied for through the following professional organizations: Minnesota Board of Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST), Minnesota Board of Social Work, Minnesota State Board of Continuing Legal Education (CLE), Minnesota Board of Psychology, Supreme Court Continuing Judicial Education (CJE), Continuing Management Education (CME), and Alternate Dispute Resolution Rule 114. Documentation can be provided for registered nurses who wish to obtain continuing education credits from the Minnesota Board of Nursing.

Conference Registration

The conference registration fee is $100 before April 29, 2011, and $110 after April 29, 2011. Registration includes conference tuition, handouts and resource materials. Day-only conference registration is also available; rates are listed on the attached conference registration form. Please complete the form on page 17 and return to the Office of Justice Programs at the location indicated. Send lodging and meal reservations directly to Cragun's – not to the Office of Justice Programs.

Accommodations

Meals and lodging are not included in the conference registration fee. One- and two-night packages for Wednesday, May 25 and/or Thursday, May 26 are available to conference participants at special rates. Please make your reservation using the form provided in the center of this brochure on pages 9–10. Reservations for lodging/meals are to be made directly with Cragun's. Individuals meals are also available at Cragun's and require advance reservation. Cragun's phone number is 218-829-3591 or 1-800-CRAGUNS. Lodging packages include: lodging, meals, refreshment breaks, use of recreational facilities, and Minnesota sales tax/service charge.

Scholarship Applications

Full conference scholarships are available and will be awarded based on geographic distribution throughout the state, previous scholarship awards, and the request statement. Scholarships include the registration fee, two-night double occupancy lodging and meals. If you received a scholarship in the past two years, you are not eligible for a 2011 conference scholarship.

- Individual Scholarships: Victims/survivors of crime, victim service advocates or program volunteers who provide direct service to crime victims/survivors.
- Criminal Justice Scholarship: Law enforcement officers, prosecutors, judges, court personnel, corrections, probation, parole, etc.
- Student Scholarships: Post-secondary students who are studying to enter any of the fields impacting crime victims (see "Encouraged Participants" on page 1).
- Immigrant Scholarships: Victim service providers who represent an immigrant population.

Additional information about scholarships is available on page 8 of this brochure. The scholarship application forms are included on pages 11–12 of this brochure. Questions should be referred to Alicia Nichols, LSW, 651-201-7318. Applications must be received by fax or mail by 4:30 p.m. on March 11.

Awards

The Office of Justice Programs will present the Kosiak Memorial Award and the Distinguished Service Award at the conference on Thursday, May 26. The Dr. William Kosiak Memorial Award recognizes exemplary service to crime victims in a volunteer capacity. The Distinguished Service Award recognizes outstanding service in a professional capacity. Additional information and a nomination form are included in this brochure on pages 5–6 and are available at www.ojp.state.mn.us. Questions should be referred to Alicia Nichols, LSW, 651-201-7318. Faxed or mailed nominations will be accepted until April 1.

Resource Fair

During the OJP Conference on Crime and Victimization, resource tables are set up in the Sports Centre to give programs an opportunity to share information about their mission and services.

This year the conference committee is again offering resource space at no charge for agencies that would like a table to display their information. Resource fair participants will have an 8-foot skirted table for display and materials. If an electrical outlet or wireless Internet is needed, indicate on the display table form. If your agency would like to participate, complete the display table form and fax it to Rachel Sibley at 651-770-5506 by Friday, April 29. The form is also available on the conference website at www.ojp.state.mn.us.

Guidelines for hosting a table:

- Space is limited. The conference planning committee will review entries and select resource fair participants based on geographical location, services provided, and representation from all crime categories (i.e., homicide, impaired driving, sexual assault, domestic violence, etc.). The conference planning committee will contact organizations to confirm reservations.
- Set-up time is 9–11 a.m., Wednesday, May 25 (or on Tuesday evening); all set-ups must be complete by 11 a.m. on Wednesday.
- Exhibitors are welcome to sell promotional items and merchandise at their table, and use audio/visual equipment such as laptops, MP3 players, etc. Exhibitors are responsible for monitoring their table and materials. OJP and Cragun's are not responsible for lost, missing or damaged materials from exhibitor tables.
- You must have an agency representative available to answer questions during the following times:

Wednesday, May 25

11 a.m. – 1 p.m.

3 – 3:30 p.m.

5 – 6 p.m.

Thursday, May 26

12:30 – 1:30 p.m.

3 – 3:30 p.m.

5 – 6 p.m.

Programs that do not have their own display table may use space available on a shared resource table. Brochures, posters or other information can be made available to the participants at the conference.

Program staff is responsible for bringing material to Cragun's; material must be delivered to the Sports Centre by 11 a.m., Wednesday, May 25, to ensure adequate table space.

Approximately 400 conference attendees are expected. Exhibitors should plan to have appropriate quantity of resource materials available.

Questions about the Resource Fair should be directed to:

- Rachel Sibley, 651-789-6701, rsibley@tubman.org
- Karla Henrichs, 507-304-4569, karla.henrichs@co.blue-earth.mn.us.

Distinguished Service Award and Kosiak Memorial Award

The Distinguished Service Award and the Dr. William Kosiak Memorial Award are presented each year at the Conference on Crime and Victimization. The Distinguished Service Award recognizes outstanding service to crime victims by a paid professional. The Kosiak Memorial Award recognizes exceptional service to crime victims by a volunteer.

Distinguished Service Award

Please detail the nominee's professional work experience. The nominee should have demonstrated outstanding service to crime victims. Service may include improved access/services for underserved crime victims, innovative programming, advancement of victim rights, and fostering fair and respectful treatment of those affected by crime. Please be as specific as possible.

Kosiak Memorial Award

Please detail the nominee's volunteer experience, including direct service to crime victims, service on a board of directors or other governing body, participation in community organizations, and other relevant victim-related experiences. Please be as specific as possible.

Additional Application Information

Please attach a separate sheet describing the nominee's contributions to the field of crime victim services. State briefly why the individual nominated should receive the Distinguished Service Award or the Kosiak Memorial Award. The statement should not exceed 500 words. Please include the name, address and telephone number of two references who can provide information to the selection committee regarding the nominee's contributions to the field of victim services/rights.

The Distinguished Service Award and the Dr. William Kosiak Memorial Award will be presented to the selected recipients at the OJP Conference on Crime and Victimization. The awards will be presented on Thursday, May 26.

Scholarship Information

Conference scholarships are available in the following four categories:

Individual Direct Service Victim Advocate or Program Volunteer

Applicants for individual scholarships must be:

- A staff person for a program, agency or organization serving crime victims;
- A volunteer for a program, agency or organization serving crime victims; or
- A victim/survivor of crime.

Criminal Justice

Applicants must be working in the criminal justice field. Possible professions include law enforcement, prosecutors, judges, court personnel, corrections, probation and parole.

Student Scholarships

Applicants must be post-secondary students studying any of the fields impacting crime victims, and interested in improving services to crime victims. Some of the possible professions include victim assistance, law enforcement, criminal justice, medical/health care, social work, law, education and probation/corrections.

Immigrant Scholarships

OJP has created this scholarship category in an effort to meet the needs of emerging immigrant communities. Applicants for immigrant scholarships must be an immigrant staff member or volunteer for a program, agency or organization serving crime victims.

Each scholarship covers the conference registration fee, double occupancy lodging for two nights, and all meals beginning with lunch on Wednesday, May 25.

A limited number of scholarships are available in each category and will be awarded based upon geographic distribution throughout the state, previous scholarship awards and the application. If you received a scholarship in the past two years, you are not eligible for a 2011 conference scholarship.

Persons representing unserved or underserved populations, geographic areas or communities of color are encouraged to apply.

If you have any questions regarding scholarships, please contact:
